

How do you promote inclusion within school, including day and residential trips?

Here at Meriden we are totally committed to providing an inclusive education for all of our children. To this end, every child in each year group participates in a range of trips which are carefully planned by staff to enhance their learning. Children in Years 4 and 6 benefit from an annual residential trip, every possible effort is made to ensure this is accessible to every child regardless of their needs.