

Lucy Anderton

I have been the headteacher at Meriden since September 2010. Prior to being appointed here, I worked in Warwickshire schools, teaching throughout the primary age range and holding roles of assistant headteacher and acting headteacher. I feel very privileged to be headteacher at Meriden Church of England Primary; our cohesive learning community involving partnerships between pupils, parents, staff and the Governing Body ensures pupils thrive in a safe, caring and stimulating environment.