

Sassi is for anyone with an interest in Autism.

Spring Term 2017

Our first 3 meetings will be led by inspirational young people with autism who will talk about their experiences. They would especially like other young people to come and take part.

- Tuesday 10th January at Widney Junior School Solihull Alex Evans on “Optimism in Autism.”
- Tuesday 7th February at Sharman’s Cross Junior School Solihull Katie Buckingham, Director of Altruist Enterprises on ‘The Advantages of Autism’.
- Tuesday 7th March at Kingshurst Academy CTC John Simpson on ‘School, College and Success in Adulthood; my life with Autism’ and for parents/carers.

- Tuesday April 4th at Widney Junior School Solihull Alice Singleton from DIAL on ‘Benefits, Advice and Organisations that offer support’ (This will be repeated on April 26th at Kingshurst Academy CTC.)

All meetings start at 7:15 and are free. No need to book. For more information on SASSI go to our Facebook page or phone Jan Bradshaw on 0121 704 6690.
