Netball Skills Competition

Tudor Grange Leisure Centre on Tuesday 6th February 1pm – 4pm

The South Solihull SSP holds an annual Netball Skills competition at the Tudor Grange Leisure Centre. The competition consists of a series of passes and routines and this year the competition is on the 6th February 2018.

This competition is open to the pupils in year 5 and 6 who attend netball club however it is only possible to take 8 pupils along to the competition.

I will be holding a 'Skills Club' on Wednesday mornings from 08:10 – 08:45 up until the competition, starting from Wednesday 17th January. The children will be learning the specific passes and routines required for this event. From these sessions, 8 children will be chosen to represent the school on the 6th February.

Please return the slip below if your child wishes to attend the training.

Thank you for your support.
