

'Stop, Start, Continue' Comments – October 2013

STOP	Parents parking in the layby! Too many emails – do one at the end of the day or week Monitor cars that park outside school Cars drive too fast past the school – we need speed bumps Sending letters without enough notice – especially when we need to pay something Too much homework!
CONTINUE	Using the newsletter to inform parents of what is happening Miss Bradnock is fantastic! Being a fabulous support to all children of all abilities Continue with excellent year 4 education Inviting us to learning mornings – it is great to see children having fun FS teachers are brilliant! Miss Parker on the gate every morning with a lovely smiling face! Sharing leaf for FS1 is lovely Lovely assemblies; Lovely Harvest Festival service Lots of communication coming through – newsletters and parentmail. Thanks! Having parent help on trips Phonics evening really helped us to focus on work at home. Thank you. Keep doing Spanish class and clubs. Having the notice board as a way of parents feeding back. Much less formal. Having two members of staff on the gate to keep children safe. Thank you. Everything is great and I'm so pleased my child loves year 1. Miss Bradnock is always so lovely, helpful and polite. The crèche at Parents' Evening. Phonics evening was very helpful. Just the right amount of homework. Having such kind, supportive, smiley and approachable office staff! Brilliant articles in the newsletter about children's individual efforts. Lovely to see the whole school singing together and enjoying it. So much stuff going on – clubs and PTA things. Thank you! Merging FS1 and FS2 before they move to FS2 is so good.
START	Non-competition dance classes Homework Club; Art classes/club; Martial arts club Show breakdown of costs for school trips Make it easier for parents to help by asking for specific times/dates/duties Inform parents when children are receiving certificates Ensure communication is right first time Still have a member of staff on the gate when there is a church service Set forms as HTML so you can alter and return – no printing at home needed Inform whether children have a place in a club before the day the club starts Have an annual thank you event for volunteers and helpers More homework! Provide more information on clubs Home visits for new FS2 children Children to learn domestic activities Allow parents of younger children to choose their dinner Provide a crèche on family learning days (Parent volunteered!) Revamp reward scheme for KS1
