

What do governors do?

- Promote high standards of educational achievement
- Set targets for pupil achievement
- Take overall responsibility for the conduct of the school
- Manage the school's budget, including numbers of staff and their pay
- Make sure that the curriculum is balanced and broadly based, in particular that the National Curriculum and religious education are taught.
- Report on pupils' achievement in National Curriculum assessments and examination results.
- Appoint senior staff such as the head teacher and deputies