

Year 4 - Summer One Amongst the Clouds

Narrative - Adventure Stories:

- Draft and write in organised paragraphs.
- Talk 4 Writing Text 'The Mountain of Adventure' by Enid Blyton.
- To plan to write with structure, varied vocabulary and grammar.
- To improve a text to make it more descriptive and to increase its impact on the reader.
- To create effective characters, settings and plot.
- To assess the effectiveness of own and others' writing and suggesting improvements.

Computing

- Stop motion animation
- Internet research
- Magnificent Mountains powerpoint
- Coding project
- Statistics

Explanation Texts - How is a mountain made?

- Opening paragraphs to provide an introductory summary.
- Chronological order and time conjunctions.
- Stages of a process clearly broken down and explained.
- Present tense and impersonal tone.
- Technical vocabulary and diagrams.
- Cause and effect conjunctions.
- Final paragraph conclusion to summarise and complete the explanation.

Science - Rocks and Soils

- Permeability
- Durability
- Rock characteristics
- Properties of rocks and soils
- Rocks as a natural material
- Soil analysis and investigation

Guided Reading

- Adventure stories
- Enid Blyton
- Comprehension activities
- Linking books with similar themes and ideas.

Maths

- Geometry - properties of shape
- Number - multiplication and division including place value
- Fractions - hundredths, tenths and problem solving
- Measurement - length, km, m and map measures
- Statistics - bar charts, graphs and pictograms
- Area and perimeter